

Greet the long, hot days of June with pretty prints, floral flourishes and a taste of the exotic East

Garden of delights

From delicate girlish sprigs and daisies to bold exotic blooms, the catwalk was blossoming with floral prints for summer, and it's easy to pull off this season's prettiest trend while still being eco friendly. Whether you want a head-to-toe look with an easy-to-slip-on dress, or just a nod to nature with a pair of flower-power heels, take your pick from our bunch.

ELLIE SHAW

KENZO

EILEY KISHIMOTO

Fair-trade hand-embroidered Ghys Peoni T-shirt, £27.50, from Komodo. Call 020-7722 3523 or visit www.komodo.co.uk

Handmade fair-trade ivory triple flower sandal, £35.99, from Aspiga. Call 01264-738862 or visit www.aspiga.com

Fair-trade Shimba skirt, £32, from Lelesso. Each skirt is made from Vintage kimono fabric Amalie heels, £320, from Hetty Rose. Call 07905-083745 or visit www.hettyrose.co.uk

Black organic cotton and floral reclaimed fabric party dress, £65, from Annie Greenabelle. Call 0845-430 0443 or visit www.anniegreenabelle.com

Ivory organic cotton poplin flower print skirt, £80, from People Tree. Call 0845-450 4595 or visit www.peopletree.co.uk

White organic cotton floral print Pansy dress, £70, from Howies. Call 01238-614122 or visit www.howies.co.uk