

Search

INSIDER

« Glassons shows 2009 Breast Cancer Research Trust T-shirts | Barbie's 50th birthday approaches »

JANUARY 26, 2009

Hetty Rose recycles kimono fabrics for spring–summer

Filed under: London, Lucire, culture, design, fashion, media — Lucire staff @ 11.17

We've had a few chats lately to readers about shoes—especially ones with prints and how they would make more of a comeback.

We were very interested to see the Hetty Rose collection for the spring–summer season. Embroidery and kimono fabrics—some are vintage and recycled, sourced from Japan—are the hallmarks of this new collection. The look is less feminine and more chunky. The collection, in our view, fits with the year's trend and some of the fashions we've seen for spring–summer worldwide.

 Share this article